Dear CPCA Members,

In just a few days, Connecticut Avenue will be transformed for Cleveland Park Day and we are looking forward to a great event and a beautiful day. You may remember that CPCA re-started Cleveland Park Day three years ago after a long lapse. There will be food to taste from local restaurants and this year we are adding live music. And of course for the children our favorites -- clowns Judy and Gary, moon bounces, the Hook and Ladder truck, and McGruff the Crime Dog, President and Mrs. Cleveland -- will all be there. So we look forward to seeing you and your family and friends on the avenue this Sunday, October 14, from noon until 4:00.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend our next meeting.

Our new website is live! We've been talking about a new website for over a year and, over the last few months, we've been working intensively with our neighbor, Danna McCormick, to design the site. Now we are really excited to announce the launching of our new website www.cpcadc.org Special thanks to one of our new Board members, Christopher Fioravante, for helping us get all kinds of files uploaded to the website and to Ruth Caplan for shepherding the site from conception to completion.

You will be able to quickly find information about CPCA events and activities. We've also set up the site to serve our neighborhood with up-to-date news on topics of special interest like Engine 28, the Metro, and other developments on Connecticut Avenue, as well as Cathedral Commons on Wisconsin. We have links to our schools, parks, places of worship, hiking & biking paths, farmers markets and other community organizations, as well as to key city agencies and emergency services.

We also have a calendar of events where we will post CPCA events as well as events of other community organizations. To post to the calendar, send an e-mail to Mark Rosenman, mrosenman@cpcadc.org

We are finalizing plans for our November membership meeting. We will be taking an in-depth look at the proposed zoning regulations.

We look forward to seeing you on the Avenue this Sunday and at the library on the 18th.

Best,
