

MINUTES
CPCA MEMBERSHIP MEETING
SEPTEMBER 29, 2022
CLEVELAND PARK LIBRARY

The meeting began at 6:30 PM in the Cleveland Park Library ground floor meeting room and was chaired by Barr Weiner, CPCA President.

Cassandra Hetherington

The Director of Cleveland Park Main Street (CPMS) presented a summary of projects in which CPMS is involved. They included: micro-grants to businesses; the Winter Market that is scheduled for December 10, 2022; and two public art projects, a mural at Spices and sculptures of endangered animals on lamp posts near the Cleveland Park Metro stop. She answered questions from the audience and provided the following for future questions:

cpms@districtbridges.org

Heba ElGawish

This representative from the DC Office of Planning provided a presentation on the progress of the Comprehensive Plan as it relates to Rock Creek West. She provided information and statistics about affordable housing opportunities in the neighborhood. She further discussed the Public Life Study her office had done, which she said would inform recommendations for future actions. She answered several questions from the audience and said that the Study she discussed was available at: <https://publicinput.com/rcw-connecticut>.

CPCA Name Change

Mike Rifer announced the results of the CPCA membership vote on the Resolution to change the organization's name to Cleveland Park Community Association. There was a 27% turn out for voting and the Resolution passed with 95.7% in favor and 4.3% opposed. The CPCA Board will proceed with implementing the change.

Nancy MacWood

After spending 22 years on the ANC, Nancy is stepping down. She described her original decision to run for the ANC position and reflected on some of her more interesting experiences.

Participants were invited to Nanny O'Brien's for a drink, compliments of CPCA, and the meeting was adjourned at 7:55 PM.

